3.2 Real property, equipment and other major assets, or right-of-use assets thereof

3.2.1 Price determination shall be done by price comparison, price bargaining, or bid invitation and refer to the publicly announced current value, the assessed current value, the actual transaction price of neighboring real property, the latest deal price, and transaction prices in the past.

3.2.2 Appraisal

In acquiring or disposing of real property, equipment, or right-of-use assets thereof where the transaction amount reaches 20 percent of the company's paid-in capital or NT$300 million or more, the company, unless transacting with a domestic government agency, engaging others to build on its own land, engaging others to build on rented land, or acquiring or disposing of equipment or right-of-use assets thereof held for business use, shall obtain an appraisal report prior to the date of occurrence of the event from a professional appraiser and shall further comply with the following provisions:

3.2.2.1 Where due to special circumstances it is necessary to give a limited price, specified price, or special price as a reference basis for the transaction price, the transaction shall be submitted for approval in advance by the board of directors; the same procedure shall also be followed whenever there is any subsequent change to the terms and conditions of the transaction.

3.2.2.2 Where the transaction amount is NT$1 billion or more, appraisals from two or more professional appraisers shall be obtained.

3.2.2.3 Where any one of the following circumstances applies with respect to the professional appraiser's appraisal results, unless all the appraisal results for the assets to be acquired are higher than the transaction amount, or all the appraisal results for the assets to be disposed of are lower than the transaction amount, a certified public accountant shall be engaged to render a specific opinion regarding the reason for the discrepancy and the appropriateness of the transaction price, and it should be approved by more than 2/3 of the board of directors and half of the attendees.

(1) The discrepancy between the appraisal result and the transaction amount is 20 percent or more of the transaction amount.

(2) The discrepancy between the appraisal results of two or more professional appraisers is 10 percent or more of the transaction amount.

3.2.2.4 No more than 3 months may elapse between the date of the appraisal report issued by a professional appraiser and the contract execution date; provided, where the publicly announced current value for the same period is used and not more than 6 months have elapsed, an opinion may still be issued by the original professional appraiser.

3.2.2.5 The calculation of the transaction amounts referred to in this paragraph shall be done in accordance with Article 5, paragraph 2 herein, and "within the preceding year" as used herein refers to the year preceding the date of occurrence of the current transaction. Items for which an appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA's opinion has been obtained need not be counted toward the transaction amount.

3.2.3 Related party Transaction

3.2.3.1 When our company engages in any acquisition or disposal of assets from or to a related party, in addition to ensuring that the necessary resolutions are adopted and the reasonableness of the transaction terms is appraised, if the transaction amount reaches 10 percent or more of the company's total assets, the company shall also obtain an appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA's opinion in compliance with the provisions in accordance with these procedures.

The calculation of the transaction amounts referred to in this paragraph shall be done in accordance with Article 5, paragraph 2 herein, and "within the preceding year" as used herein refers to the year preceding the date of occurrence of the current transaction. Items for which an appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA's opinion has been obtained need not be counted toward the transaction amount.

When judging whether a transaction counterparty is a related party, in addition to legal formalities, the substance of the relationship shall also be considered.

3.2.3.2 Our company intends to acquire or dispose of real property or right-of-use assets from or to a related party, or when it intends to acquire or dispose of assets other than real property or right-of-use assets thereof from or to a related party and the transaction amount reaches 20 percent or more of paid-in capital, 10 percent or more of the company's total assets, or NT$300 million or more, except in trading of domestic government bonds or bonds under repurchase and resale agreements, or subscription or redemption of money market funds issued by domestic securities investment trust enterprises, the company may not proceed to enter into a transaction contract or make a payment until the following matters have been approved by audit committee the board of directors for approval:

- (1) The purpose, necessity and anticipated benefit of the acquisition or disposal of assets.
- (2) The reason for choosing the related party as a transaction counterparty.
- (3) With respect to the acquisition of real property or right-of-use assets thereof from a related party, information regarding appraisal of the reasonableness of the preliminary transaction terms in accordance with Articles 3 of 3.2.3.3 and 3, of 3.2.3.4.

- (4) The date and price at which the related party originally acquired the real property, the original transaction counterparty, and that transaction counterparty's relationship to the company and the related party.
- (5) Monthly cash flow forecasts for the year commencing from the anticipated month of signing of the contract, and evaluation of the necessity of the transaction, and reasonableness of the funds utilization.
- (6) An appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA's opinion obtained in compliance with the preceding article.
- (7) Restrictive covenants and other important stipulations associated with the transaction.

With respect to the types of transactions which are acquisition or disposal of real property and equipment or right-of-use assets, there of held for business use, when to be conducted between our company and our parent or subsidiaries, or between our subsidiaries in which it directly or indirectly holds 100 percent of the issued shares or authorized capital, the board chairman to decide such matters when the transaction is within NT 500 million and have the decisions subsequently submitted to and ratified by the next audit committee and board of directors meeting.

Our company or a subsidiary thereof that is not a domestic public company will have a transaction set out in Article (1) of 3.2.3.2 and the transaction amount will reach 10 percent or more of our company's total assets, the public company shall submit the materials in all the subparagraphs of Article (1) of 3.2.3.2 to the shareholders meeting for approval before the transaction contract may be entered into and any payment made. However, this restriction does not apply to transactions between the public company and its parent company or subsidiaries or between its subsidiaries.

The calculation of the transaction amounts referred to in this item Article 3.2.3.2 shall be done in accordance with Article 5, paragraph 2 herein, and "within the preceding year" as used herein refers to the year preceding the date of occurrence of the current transaction. The portions approved by the audit committee, the board of directors, and the shareholders' meeting are exempt from being counted again.

3.2.3.3 Our company that acquires real property or right-of-use assets thereof from a related party shall evaluate the reasonableness of the transaction costs by the following means:

- (1) Based upon the related party's transaction price plus necessary interest on funding and the costs to be duly borne by the buyer. "Necessary interest on funding" is imputed as the weighted average interest rate on borrowing in the year the company purchases the property; provided, it may not be higher than the maximum non-financial industry lending rate announced by the Ministry of Finance.

- (2) Total loan value appraisal from a financial institution where the related party has previously created a mortgage on the property as security for a loan; provided, the actual cumulative amount loaned by the financial institution shall have been 70 percent or more of the financial institution's appraised loan value of the property and the period of the loan shall have been 1 year or more. However, this shall not apply where the financial institution is a related party of one of the transaction counterparties.
- (3) Where land and structures thereupon are combined as a single property purchased or leased in one transaction, the transaction costs for the land and the structures may be separately appraised in accordance with either of the means listed in the Articles(1) and (2) of 3.2.3.3.
- (4) Our company that acquires real property or right-of-use assets thereof from a related party and appraises the cost of the real property or right-of-use assets thereof in accordance with the Articles (1) and (2) of 3.2.3.3 shall also engage a CPA to check the appraisal and render a specific opinion.
- (5) Where our company acquires real property or right-of-use assets thereof from a related party and one of the following circumstances exists, the acquisition shall be conducted in accordance with Articles 3.2.3.2, and the (1) and (2)and (3) and (4) of 3.2.3.3 paragraphs do not apply:
 - ①The related party acquired the real property or right-of-use assets thereof through inheritance or as a gift.
 - ②More than 5 years will have elapsed from the time the related party signed the contract to obtain the real property or right-of-use assets thereof to the signing date for the current transaction.
 - ③The real property is acquired through signing of a joint development contract with the related party, or through engaging a related party to build real property, either on the company's own land or on rented land.
 - ④The real property right-of-use assets for business use are acquired by our company with its parent or subsidiaries, or by its subsidiaries in which it directly or indirectly holds 100 percent of the issued shares or authorized capital.

3.2.3.4 When the results of our company appraisal conducted in accordance with Articles (1) and (2) and (3) of 3.2.33 are uniformly lower than the transaction price, the matter shall be handled in compliance with 3.2.3.5. However, where the following circumstances exist, objective evidence has been submitted and specific opinions on reasonableness have been obtained from a professional real property appraiser and a CPA have been obtained, this restriction shall not apply:

(1) Where the related party acquired undeveloped land or leased land for development, it may submit proof of compliance with one of the following conditions:

① Where undeveloped land is appraised in accordance with the means under Article 3.2.3.3, and structures according to the related party's construction cost plus reasonable construction profit are valued in excess of the actual transaction price. The "Reasonable construction profit" shall be deemed the average gross operating profit margin of the related party's construction division over the most recent 3 years or the gross profit margin for the construction industry for the most recent period as announced by the Ministry of Finance, whichever is lower.

(2) Where our company acquiring real property, or obtaining real property right-of-use assets through leasing, from a related party provides evidence that the terms of the transaction are similar to the terms of completed transactions involving neighboring or closely valued parcels of land of a similar size by unrelated parties within the preceding year. Completed transactions involving neighboring or closely valued parcels of land in the preceding paragraph in principle refers to parcels on the same or an adjacent block and within a distance of no more than 500 meters or parcels close in publicly announced current value; transactions involving similarly sized parcels in principle refers to transactions completed by unrelated parties for parcels with a land area of no less than 50 percent of the property in the planned transaction; within the preceding year refers to the year preceding the date of occurrence of the acquisition of the real property or obtainment of the right-of-use assets thereof.

3.2.3.5 Where our company acquires real property or right-of-use assets thereof from a related party and the results of appraisals conducted in accordance with Articles 3.2.3.3 and 3.2.3.4 are uniformly lower than the transaction price, the following steps shall be taken:

(1) A special reserve shall be set aside in accordance with Article 41, paragraph 1 of the Act against the difference between the real property transaction price and the appraised cost, and may not be distributed or used for capital increase or issuance of bonus shares. Where a public company uses the equity method to account for its investment in another company, then the special reserve called for under Article 41, paragraph of the Act shall be set aside pro rata in a proportion consistent with the share of public company's equity stake in the other company.

(2) Independent director member of the audit committee shall comply with Article 218 of the Company Act.

- (3) Actions taken pursuant to the preceding two subparagraphs shall be reported to a shareholders meeting, and the details of the transaction shall be disclosed in the annual report and any investment prospectus.

Our company that has set aside a special reserve under the preceding paragraph may not utilize the special reserve until it has recognized a loss on decline in market value of the assets it purchased or leased at a premium, or they have been disposed of, or the leasing contract has been terminated, or adequate compensation has been made, or the status quo ante has been restored, or there is other evidence confirming that there was nothing unreasonable about the transaction, and the FSC has given its consent. When a public company obtains real property or right-of-use assets thereof from a related party, it shall also comply with the preceding two paragraphs if there is other evidence indicating that the acquisition was not an arms length transaction.

3.3 Memberships or intangible assets or right-of-use assets

3.3.1 Memberships

Price determination shall refer to the list price of such membership and the latest deal price or the price of membership of a similar nature.

3.3.2 Intangible Assets

Price determination shall be based on the benefits or business opportunities that will be brought by such intangible asset to the company after evaluated and refer to similar transactions or the latest deal price.

- 3.3.3 Where the company acquires or disposes of intangible assets or right-of-use assets thereof or memberships and the transaction amount reaches 20% or more of paid-in capital or NT$300 million or more, except in transactions with a domestic government agency, the company shall engage CPAs prior to the date of occurrence of the event to render an opinion on the reasonableness of the transaction price.

The calculation of the transaction amounts referred to in this paragraph shall be done in accordance with Article 5, paragraph 2 herein, and "within the preceding year" as used herein refers to the year preceding the date of occurrence of the current transaction. Items for which an appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA's opinion has been obtained need not be counted toward the transaction amount.

3.4 Assets acquired or disposed of in connection with mergers, demergers, acquisitions, or transfer of shares in accordance with the law

- 3.4.1 The exchange ratio and acquisition price of such assets shall be determined after considering both parties' net worth, stock prices, long-term profitability, market shares, brands, images, technical capacity, and other factors of operational value.

- 3.4.2 Our company that conducts a merger, demerger, acquisition, or transfer of shares, prior to convening the board of directors to resolve on the matter, shall engage a CPA, attorney, or securities underwriter to give an opinion on the reasonableness of the share exchange ratio, acquisition price, or distribution of cash or other property to shareholders, and submit it to the audit committee and the board of directors for deliberation and passage.

However, the requirement of obtaining an aforesaid opinion on reasonableness issued by an expert may be exempted in the case of a merger by our company of a subsidiary in which it directly or indirectly holds 100 percent of the issued shares or authorized capital, and in the case of a merger between subsidiaries in which our company directly or indirectly holds 100 percent of the respective subsidiaries' issued shares or authorized capital.

3.4.3 Our company participating in a merger, demerger, acquisition, or transfer of shares may not arbitrarily alter the share exchange ratio or acquisition price unless under the below-listed circumstances, and shall stipulate the circumstances permitting alteration in the contract for the merger, demerger, acquisition, or transfer of shares:

- 3.4.3.1 Cash capital increase, issuance of convertible corporate bonds, or the issuance of bonus shares, issuance of corporate bonds with warrants, preferred shares with warrants, stock warrants, or other equity based securities.
- 3.4.3.2 An action, such as a disposal of major assets, that affects the company's financial operations.
- 3.4.3.3 An event, such as a major disaster or major change in technology, that affects shareholder equity or share price.
- 3.4.3.4 An adjustment where any of the companies participating in the merger, demerger, acquisition, or transfer of shares from another company, buys back treasury stock.
- 3.4.3.5 An increase or decrease in the number of entities or companies participating in the merger, demerger, acquisition, or transfer of shares.
- 3.4.3.6 Other terms conditions that the contract stipulates may be altered and that have been publicly disclosed.

3.5 Where a our company acquires or disposes of assets through court auction procedures, the evidentiary documentation issued by the court may be substituted for the appraisal report or CPA opinion.
